VOLUNTEER • DONATE

Operation Honor Flight Chicago has the mission of escorting Chicagoland WWII Veterans to Washington D.C. so that they can see the National WWII Memorial. These escorts will occur through a series of “honor flights” that will take place during 2010. Upon returning to the Chicagoland area, the veterans are welcomed home in a manner very much similar to the Department’s “Operation Welcome Home.”

Over 1,000 WWII veterans are dying each day. Operation Honor Flight has given priority to the most senior veterans and those who are terminally ill.

We have been advised that there is one Vernon Hills resident who is on the waiting list. In addition, Operation Honor Flight is looking for sponsors, so that other WWII veterans can participate.

If you would like to participate in this effort by donating a dollar or two, please see Todd Williams, Tony Ugaste, Ron Grant or John Taylor. Our goal is to raise enough money to be able to cover the costs of one flight and be part of this community based effort.
